MY WORD

By DOROTHY LARIMER

The annual dinner and installation of the Albany Chamber of Commerce is Friday night at Spenger's. Even if I weren't a member of the committee, I'd urge you to attend.

This is another community affair like the Policeman's and Firemen's Ball, offering hometown folks an opportunity to get together socially. It will be fun, the community leaders will be there, and the Chamber would appreciate your moral support. As a city, we can use more "togetherness," don't you think?

The "happy hour" begins at 7; dinner is at 8. Call Ken Murdoch at LA 5-1771, and tell him you'll be there.

Animal Control Officer Chuck Scarels has asked you not to feed birds in the street. Cars come along and run over them, so you're really not helping the birds at all.

Our faces are red at the Albany Times. After commenting that it would be fall before all clocks in the business districts would be set to daylight time, we tried to make our electric clock right. Matter of fact, we almost lost our Ad Man Bob Moore, when he fell through a plate glass shelf trying to set it. General Manager Bob DeTar worked on it and the Classified Manager Mary Orr and I were full of advice, but the clock stopped at about 6 and we haven't been able to coax it to move. It's right twice a day and that's all.

Lorrene Baum, the new Maid of Albany, Saturday attended a Nixon rally in Palo Alto, where she rode in the Albany car with her sister, Lelanna. On Sunday she was a model at a cosmetology convention at Jack London Square. John Jagoda of Jagod Studio has asked her to pose for a portrait to be entered in a contest. Lorrene will participate in the contest for Maid of Alameda County on Sunday afternoon, July 1, in Pleasanton and will preside at Albany Day activities at the fair on July 12. Her first official appearance in Albany will be Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner.

DONALD E. LOVE of 1116 Curtis Street, minister of music at University Avenue Baptist Church and affiliated with Morse Freeman Music Company in San Francisco, has been elected president of the East Bay Choral Conductors' Guild. He is a graduate of Hardin Simmons Baptist College in Texas.

JOHN ZORO of Albany has been named to the committee working for the re-election of John Holmdahl in 17th Assembly District. Osborne A. Pearson is general chairman of the committee.

MAID OF ALBANY — Lorrene Baum, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Baum of 1049 Ordway and a junior at Albany High School, won the title of Maid of Albany in a close contest at Cornell School May 26. She will appear at the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner at Spenger's June 8 and will be a contestant for Maid of Alameda County at the County Fair in Pleasanton in July. (Times Photo)

Annual Chamber Dinner Friday at Spengers

The annual Albany Chamber of Commerce dinner will be at Spenger's Friday evening. Deadline for making reservations is 5 p.m. Thursday. Those planning to attend may call LA 5-1771, the Chamber office.

New President James Williams and other officers will be installed, special awards will be presented, and Lorrene Baum, the Maid of Albany, will be presented. Hal Denham will be master of ceremonies.

Special invitations have been extended to the City Council and members of the county Board of Supervisors. About 60 reservations had been made by Monday. DuMont Dance Studios will present a dance and variety show

Jaycees Elect Bill Johnson

Bill Johnson, attorney with Joseph Gaeta firm, is the new president of Albany Jaycees, succeeding Ronald Baird, who is state director.

Other new officers are Fred Scholes, vice president, and Les Laybourne, secretary-treasurer.

Planning Commission Delays Safeway Decision

A public hearing May 22 on the proposed construction of a large Safeway supermarket on Solano between Curtis and Neilsen ended after about three hours, when members of the Planning and Zoning Commission decided to hold a work session on the matter tonight and postponed voting until the regular meeting June 12.

City Council chambers were packed with people. Latecomers stood in the back and along the

CITY COUNCIL APPROVES RAISE IN ADMISSION TAX AT RACE TRACK

Members of the Albany City Council Monday night passed on first reading an amendment to the City Code which would increase the admission tax at Golden Gate Fields from 10 to 20 cents. At its meeting May 28, the Council approved the increase and ordered the amendment to the ordinance prepared.

Councilmen unanimously denied an application by David Pile for reclassification of the property at 1481 Solano Avenue to permit the operation of a billiard club. The Planning and Zoning Commission had recommended denial to the Council following a public hearing May 1. Several persons spoke in opposition during the Council's public hearing Monday.

Four bids, ranging from $1,598.56 to $1,995.43, on the police car requested by Chief Ralph Jensen were opened and turned over to the chief for his consideration.

An amended ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large in parks, school grounds and playgrounds, and new section which will prohibit dogs from committing nuisances on property other than that of its owner or keeper, were referred to the City Attorney, who will draw up the necessary ordinances.

The Council set June 18 as the date for hearing protests to the weed burning program. If burning is not done by the owner, the city will do it and bill the property owner for services on the basis of time required to clear the lot.

In other matters, the Council authorized DeLeuw, Cather and Company to proceed with preparation of engineering plans for Buchanan Street Grade Separation. Referred to the finance committee a request by the Nourishment Association of Albany to restore the budget allocation to the fund which provides free lunches and milk for needy Albany children. This was $50 annually until deleted last year.

Discussed the proposed charter amendment which would take the school tax off the city tax bill and transfer the billing and collection of the school tax to the county. Voted to request from D. A. Sargent Company a survey to determine the city's bookkeeping needs of the future. Accepted from Administrative Officer James B. Turner a statement of values of city buildings and property for insurance purposes.

Councilman Joe Carlevaro, who had represented the city at a Cosmologist Convention over the weekend, presented a plaque which had been awarded to the City of Albany by the group.

The Council adjourned urging everyone to vote in Tuesday's primary election.

Vandals Damage Flower Beds, Cut Hoses May 31

Alex Fennone of 902 Cerrito is about 80 years old and has but one arm. His great joy is working with flowers in his yard. Today he is an angry man and he has offered $50 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of vandals who have uprooted his flowers and torn down stakes on several occasions in recent weeks.

The latest upheaval in the Fennone flowerbeds occurred the night of May 31, when other yards were vandalized in Albany.

Police Officer George Sartain, who lives at 801 Cerrito, reported his garden hose was cut in two. Mrs. Evelyn Mann of 512 Ramona and Benjamin Jackson of 828 Cerrito reported their garden hoses cut.

Among others who have reported recent damage are: Edmund Cooper of 526 Pomona, garden hose cut; William Ochoa, 802 Madison, garden hose cut; Hank Bloomert, 1137 Portland, small juniper tree ripped out; Charles DeMello, 726 Adams, $15 damage to plant and redwood box; Walter Hall, 1327 Washington, garden hose cut, gas cap removed from car; Manuel Avilla, 1232 Portland, aerial on car broken off.

Missing Lindh Gun Found In Albany Yard

Kingsley Berndt of 1066 Curth Street, an Albany fireman, reported to the police department Sunday that he had found the missing service revolver belonging to Sgt. Carl Lindh, who was shot by robbers in Sam's Pharmacy May 26. After emptying his revolver and being shot twice, Sergeant Lindh hurled the gun at the bandits. It had been missing until Sunday.

Berndt spotted the butt of the gun under a piece of scrap Formica Sunday as he bent over to turn off a faucet connected to a garden house. Police officers found two expended cartridge cases in the dirt where the gun was found, another four feet away, one in the middle of the yard and a fourth on a nearby fence.

Another recent discovery was three or four blood smears on the wall of the Lawrence George home at 1065 Cornell. The family recalls hearing noises and the barking about 10 p.m. the night of the robbery. It is known that at least one of the robbers was wounded in the exchange of shots.

Police are continuing their investigation.

Susan Shattock Installed Queen of Albany Bethel Saturday, June 2

Using the Triangle ceremony and purple, white and silver appointments, Susan Shattock was installed as Honored Queen of Albany Bethel 265. International Order of Job's Daughters, at the 15th semi-annual installation rites Saturday in the Thousand Oaks Masonic Temple, Berkeley. Charles Potter acted as host and usherettes for the evening were Julie Nickerson and Doris Pruden.

Presiding over the installation of the Honored Queen and her officers was retiring Honored Queen Sharon Potter. Other installing officers were Connie Nelson, guide; Joan Morton, marshal; Margie Baxter, chaplain;

Safeway Decision Delayed

(Continued from Page 1) had signed had expressed the desire for a new store and did not realize rezoning was involved. Nick Reckas, owner of Hi-Fashion Fabrics on Solano said he had earlier planned to sell his Albany store, but since Safeway has offered hope of revitalizing Solano Avenue, he has plans to expand his place of business. Another man urged the granting of the request, adding, "It's a matter of life and death for many of us."

Bestor Robinson, Safeway attorney, said Safeway is not interested in locating on San Pablo. A market survey has indicated Solano Avenue is the best location for the supermarket. He said of those living in a 300 foot radius of the proposed location, 51 were in favor and 13 opposed. Robinson said the market is estimated to bring $5,000 in additional sales tax and $10,000 in school and city taxes to Albany. He stressed the store will tend to stimulate the entire area.

Pete Perrin of Tri-City Electric said the people should consider what is good for Albany. "Is the zoning ordinance a sacred cow?" he asked. "Albany is dying and standing still. This is a stepping stone toward progress and getting Albany on its feet again."

Jack Lynch said he is against anything that would hurt neighboring homes and that the building of the supermarket would downgrade those homes.

In his recommendations to the commission, Administrative Officer James B. Turner said that if rezoning were granted as requested by Safeway, anything could go in, including apartments, without further consideration by the Council. They could also completely revise their plan of development as a Safeway store without having to obtain approval from the city. He recommended that the step to allow them to go in be taken but taken in such a way that the city retain control over what actually goes in. The appointed officers installed included Penny Jo Hendrickson, outer guard; Caren Valentine, inner guard; Margo Patterson, junior custodian; Kathy Forster, first messenger; Joy Hogarth, second messenger; Cheryl Saunders, third messenger; Deanna Call, fourth messenger; Joyce Alderson, fifth messenger; Judy McFadden, librarian; Mary Jo Caldwell, chaplain; Katy Stephens, recorder; Stephanie Klose, treasurer, and Karen Downing, musician.

Members who will participate in the Bethel choir during the coming term are: Marsha Allen, Sidnie Byars, Judy Cummings, Darlene Denman, Jeanne Fisher, Linda Johnson, Cheryl Jones, Noreen Lumpe and Diana Matzen.

Also, Sue Minear, Jeon Morrison, Janis Murry, Suzanne Nelson, Jill Orleman, Sharon Potter, Mary Lou Regan and Barbara Samples. Following the installation ceremonies, members and guests enjoyed a reception and dancing.

They could also completely revise their plan of development as a Safeway store without having to obtain approval from the city. He recommended that the step to allow them to go in be taken but taken in such a way that the city retain control over what actually goes in. The Safeway attorney agreed to this and offered to put it in writing. It was pointed out that if Safeway wanted to set up parking behind its proposed new store, it would need only a use permit because the 100-foot frontage on Solano is already zoned commercial. Robinson said parking in front would be best for the store and would keep heavy traffic on Solano and off residential side streets.

In other matters, the four commission members approved a request by Jack Murrows of 1028 Talbot to convert to a duplex, and gave Carter and Rago permission to construct a fourplex at 1026 Stannage. They gave architectural approval for a Norge Village to be constructed north of the car wash on San Pablo on the back rear lot, elected Norman Faulkner vice chairman, and unanimously adopted a set of rules and regulations set up by Pat Faria George, who was not present and a few days later resigned from the commission.

THANKS FOR WRITING!

Editor, The Times:

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all who have been concerned about my injury.

It does much for my family and to realize so many are interested in our welfare. I have had some surgery, and expect a little more. I trust, however, that it will not be long before I can return home to my family. Soon after that it will be my great pleasure to return to work.

Thank you all, again.
Carl A. Lindh
Albany Police Dept.

Editor, The Times:

We are most grateful to the party, whomever it was, for notifying the fire department that our roof was burning. This goodness along with the department's prompt response and a job well done enable us to still live at 943 Madison Street.

Editor, The Times:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the College Women's Club, I wish to thank you for the coverage you have given to our activities for this club year 1961-1962.

The courtesy and cooperation extended to our Public Relations Chairman, Mrs. Huht Hermans, are greatly appreciated. We hope our program for the coming year will merit your support.

Editor, The Times:

The members of the Soroptimist Club of Albany join me in expressing our thanks and sincere appreciation for the newspaper coverage our club has received through the Albany Times and Thousand Oaks Times during my term as Publicity Chairman.

The helpful suggestions, photographs and cooperation of the editor has been invaluable.
May Ellis Olson

Editor, The Times:

Numerous people have come to me to say that they have heard in the last few weeks that I had purchased a large parcel of property in the 900 block of San Pablo Avenue to speculate on a proposed site for a chain grocery store, and that consequently I had driven this prospective business out of the area over my excessive monetary demands.

I wish to state unequivocally that I have never, past or present, owned or even contemplated buying any property in the 900 block of San Pablo Avenue or the 900 block of Adams Street. The only property I own on these streets is at 823 San Pablo Avenue where my business has been

December, 1960. This can easily be verified by checking property ownership at the City Hall.

I have received phone calls and letters asking me about this, and I sincerely hope that anyone else who has heard similar rumors would contact me so that I might clear up this entire situation once and for all.

Judge Sustains Second Demurrer

Judge Folger Emerson, presiding judge of Superior Court, Monday sustained Attorney Robert Foley's second demurrer on the amended complaint of Paul R. Boylich, who was given 15 days to again amend his complaint, which according to the judge, still does not state a cause of action.

Boylich filed his original complaint on April 9, asking the court for punitive or exemplary damages against each of five Albany men in the sum of "not less than $100,000," plus damages in excess of $5,000 for alleged defamation of character in a pre-election sheet signed by Bruce Stark, one of the defendants. Others named are Councilmen Lewis M. Howell and Joseph Egenberger, Mayor Joel Parker, and Gillum Freels, who was a candidate for City Council.

Y Swim Program Opens June 9

These warm summer days and summer vacation provide ample opportunity for youngsters to learn to swim. The Albany YMCA's Summer Instruction Swimming Program starts Sunday, June 9, with the advance swimming group at 8:40 a.m.; non-swimmers and beginners, 9:20 to 10; non-swimmers and beginners 6 to 8 years of age, 10 to 10:40; advance beginners, youngsters who can swim 35 to 40 feet, 10:40 to 11:20; low intermediate, youngsters who can swim 100 feet, 11:20 to 12 noon.

Adapted to each group are the basic standard strokes, survival floats and safety precautions.

Swim instructors Ray "Skip" Miller, Richard Schaefer and Aquatic Director Elmer F. Coble, will have a corps of trained volunteer teenagers assisting. Parents who are interested in teaching beginning swimmers, in either of the beginner's age brackets, may contact Coble at Landscape 5-4833 for qualifications as an instructor aid.

Letter to Editor

Editor, The Times:

At the Planning Commission meeting of May 22, 1962, a question was raised indicating that Safeway's interest in acquiring a site on Solano Avenue was very recent. For over 5 years Safeway has been seeking a site on Solano Avenue but has been unable to locate one because of the difficulty in assembling sufficient property that was not tied up with long term leases or so highly improved as to make an acquisition impossible. We had the same problem at the time we were attempting to locate a site on San Pablo Avenue.

As was pointed out in the Planning Commission meeting, Safeway was attempting to acquire property on San Pablo Avenue just north of Buchanan Street and all parcels appeared to be obtainable with the exception of one small piece that was occupied by an elderly blind woman. The owner was unwilling to sell since he did not wish to disturb her. After abandoning our attempt to acquire this site we attempted to obtain another site on San Pablo in Albany and again were blocked by an owner who resided in San Francisco. We then analyzed our entire plans for the East Bay and at that time determined that we should redouble our efforts to obtain a site on Solano Avenue and abandon any further attempts to locate on San Pablo Avenue in Albany.
